1. One night the King of Leprechauns saw a handsome Irish lad,

G C G D G
Seated by an emerald pond and looking very sad.

C G D
The king approached the gloomy boy and tipped his little crown,

G C G D G
“Good evening, Lad, what troubles ye and causes ye to frown?”

G C G D
2. The lad sighed, “Sir, I love a girl, she’s as lovely as can be.

G C G D G
But when I try to tell her so, she always laughs at me.

C G D
For I can’t talk in fancy words or sing a lover’s song,

G C G D G
And everything I say to her just seems to come out wrong!”

G C G D
Chorus: Blarney Stone, Blarney Stone, kiss the Blarney Stone.

C G C D G
Try to catch some magic when you kiss the Blarney Stone.

G C G D
3. The king had listened carefully, and when the lad was done,

G C G D G
He said, "The Gift of Flattery is all ye need, my son.

C G D
But ye must promise first to never catch a leprechaun."

G C G D G
"I promise!" said the happy lad, so the little king went on.

G C G D
4. "Way yon in Blarney Castle there's a stone with a magic spell,

G C G D G
And if ye'll only kiss it, Ye can flatter very well.

C G D
So he found the stone and kissed it and was happy all his life,

G C G D G
For his magic Gift of Flattery, won him a lovely wife!

G C G D
Chorus: Blarney Stone, Blarney Stone, kiss the Blarney Stone.

C G C D G
Try to catch some magic when you kiss the Blarney Stone.

G C G D
5. And people to this very day still kiss the blarney stone,

G C G D G
Hoping that this magic gift will be their very own.

C G D
If a soul mate forevermore, you're looking for to find,

G C G D G
Go skippin' 'cross that big ole pond before you change your mind.
